Competitive Research Funding Scheme

Need of the Present Research	One of the mission of our current government is to double a farmer's income. In view of the same the government of India led by our honourable Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi announced & rolled out a program called Soil Health Card on 19th February 2015. Under this program every farmer of India can get a Soil Health card twice a year from a chain of soil testing labs set up across the country. Even though the scheme aims to issue health cards to 14 crore farmers, so far it has issued only 7.25 crore cards. The major problems faced in the process are, Delay, Accuracy and Awareness/Education.
4 Petermag of research 5 Visit to Industry/Research 1 patences	To overcome these problems, our solution is to develop a hand held IOT device that can measure all the parameters instantly in the farm environment. The solution will have three key elements such as Phone App, Hand held device and Cloud Analytics.
Objectives (In Bullets)	 To provide a basis to address nutrient deficiencies in fertilization practices. To strengthen functioning of Soil Testing Laboratories (STLs) through capacity building. To diagnose soil fertility related constraints with standardized procedures. To develop and promote soil test based nutrient management. Dissemination of soil testing results through SMSs will be enabled.
Societal Relevance	Farmers will have the soil health data through soil health cards immediately. They will be able to grow the right kind of crops optimally & thereby increase their income. They would also be able to reduce the usage of urea that will improve the soil health condition & reduce pollution.
Methodology	Internet of Things
Expected Outcome (SCI indexed publications, Development of innovative product/process, Industry or Societal Technologies etc.	Demonstrate a prototype that can collect data & perform analytics on the same. Algorithms would be developed to estimate the target soil parameters correctly. The data & algorithms would be presented at IEEE conferences.
Any Other Information	NIL
