INCHARGE FACULTY: Mr. Naveen V, NSS Program Officer, KSIT.

OBJECTIVES:

1. To honour the adoption of the Indian Constitution and its democratic principles.
2. To educate participants about their fundamental rights and duties as citizens.
3. To promote respect for the values enshrined in the Constitution.
4. To encourage civic participation and responsibility among students and staff.
5. To emphasize the Constitution's role in fostering unity and safeguarding diversity.
6. To inspire commitment to democratic ideals and active contribution to nation-building.

HISTORY OF THE EVENT:

Constitution Day, also known as Samvidhan Divas, is celebrated in India on 26th November to commemorate the adoption of the Indian Constitution in 1949. The day honours Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, the chairman of the Drafting Committee, for his pivotal role in framing the Constitution, which is the cornerstone of India's democracy. The Constitution came into effect on 26th January 1950, marking the birth of the Republic of India and laying the foundation for justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity. Constitution Day was first celebrated in 2015, following its declaration by the Government of India to promote constitutional values among citizens. It emphasizes awareness of fundamental rights, duties, and the significance of the Constitution in guiding the nation's development and ensuring the welfare of its people.

SCOPE OF THE EVENT:

The celebration of Constitution Day in the college aims to create awareness among students and staff about the significance of the Indian Constitution and its core values. It provides an opportunity to reflect on the fundamental rights and duties of citizens while fostering a sense of civic responsibility. The event promotes understanding of constitutional principles, encouraging participants to uphold democracy and contribute to nation-building. It also reinforces the importance of unity, equality, and justice in shaping a progressive academic and social environment.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE EVENT:

On 27th November 2024, the NSS wing of KSIT organized the Constitution Day celebration in the college. The event witnessed the esteemed presence of Dr. KVA Balaji, CEO of KSIG; Mr. Naveen V, NSS Program Officer; Heads of all departments, faculty members, students, and NSS volunteers.

The program began with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp by the dignitaries on the dais, symbolizing knowledge and enlightenment. During their address to the gathering, the dignitaries emphasized the significance of celebrating Constitution Day as a tribute to the framers of the Indian Constitution. They highlighted how the Constitution serves as the foundation of India's democratic system, safeguarding the rights of citizens and ensuring equality, justice, and liberty for all. They also encouraged everyone to understand their fundamental duties and responsibilities to contribute to the nation's progress. A highlight of the event was the collective oath-taking ceremony, where all attendees recited the Preamble of the Constitution. This act symbolized their commitment to uphold the values of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity enshrined in the Constitution. The oath served as a reminder of the shared responsibility to respect and abide by the Constitution in all walks of life.

The event concluded with inspiring speeches by faculty members and dignitaries, emphasizing the need to adhere to the rules and regulations set by the Constitution. They also acknowledged the efforts of the Constitution's framers, whose vision laid the groundwork for a strong and effective judicial system. Participants expressed their gratitude and appreciation for the constitutional values that continue to guide the nation. The celebration reinforced the importance of the Constitution in maintaining a harmonious and progressive society, leaving a profound impact on everyone present.
